

A better way to keep work working

More than just a policy, a proactive and preventative service

Group Income Protection provides a valuable workplace benefit that can reduce absence through a range of services, from health prevention to early intervention and rehabilitation. We've built our Group Income Protection to keep your employees healthy and happy, and to help you build and grow a thriving business.

And now, our policies combine our comprehensive intervention and rehabilitation services with YuLife's award-winning gamified technology¹. Together, our proposition not only provides effective resources for those employees who are unwell, but also helps employees take proactive steps to mitigate potential health issues, delivering a truly preventative solution.

How we can support your employees through ill health and sickness:

Gamified Wellbeing Experience

The YuLife app helps employees build healthy habits every day with rewards for walking, cycling, meditation and more. It also improves access to MetLife's tools and services.

Gold Standard Early Intervention

Our partnership with HCB Group provides proactive and effective early intervention and rehabilitation support.

Clinical Pathways

To guide employers with treatment pathways for employees across three conditions - mental health, MSK injury and long COVID.

Employee Assistance Programme

24/7 support, with up to 10 structured counselling sessions per year, and access to information on everything from debt and pensions, to heart health and travel.

GP24 - Virtual GP

Unlimited access to book an appointment with registered GPs 24 hours a day, every day of the year.

About MetLife
