Important information

An authorised signatory is an individual, usually an executive, who has been given authority to sign documents and forms on behalf of the policyholder of the policy(ies) i.e. the employer or a UK trust.

For completion of claims and policy documentation please provide a minimum of 2 authorised persons or signatories. In the event you only supply 1 authorised person, this may delay cover being provided or a claim being paid if they are not available at the time to sign the relevant forms. Please ensure you have completed and signed section 3. Incomplete forms will be returned.

Please complete in block capitals.
