

Future Focus

Welcome to the latest edition of 'Future Focus' – our quarterly newsletter filled with the latest news for you.

Reminder – FAQs

For those of you with questions concerning the impact of the coronavirus on MetLife's employee benefits propositions, take a look at our 'Quick Start Guide' which is a concise summary of all the key Q&A's. There is also a more in-depth FAQ document which covers a wide variety of topics. If you do have any other questions that are not already answered, please get in touch with your MetLife representative.

In focus: Master Trusts

At the end of last year, we made changes to our Master Trusts to make it easier for employers to use, as well as introducing an Excepted Master Trust, designed to hold MetLife Excepted Group Life and Single Life Relevant Life policies, giving clients more flexibility. It's simple to join our Master Trust with the completion of a short Employer Admission form that can be emailed to us for ease and efficiency.

You can find more information and the benefits of Master Trusts, as well as the following documents, in our Group Life Document Library.

MetLife – Corporate Adviser's fastest growing Group Life provider

We were delighted to see MetLife UK named as the fastest growing Group Life provider of 2019 in Corporate Adviser's recent Workplace & Wellbeing Report. We've seen a 17% increase year on year, adding over 130,000 lives to our Group Life book.

Our purpose 'Navigating Life Together' means everything to us and we're proud to be there for our clients.
