

Benefits that give you more than just life insurance

Discover a range of valuable extras with MetLife's Group Life & Legacy - from free will-writing to virtual GP appointments. Below you'll find the full range of benefits available to you and your loved ones, along with details on how to make the most of them today.

 I'm concerned my loved ones won't receive what I want them to, should I pass away.

Free will-writing service

You can enjoy peace of mind through our free, legally-compliant will-writing service, which includes creating a Lasting Power of Attorney.

 If something happens to me, my loved ones won't have access to my important documents.

Digital Vault

You and your loved ones are entitled to a 100GB secure and easy-to-use digital vault where documents, like your will and life insurance paperwork, bank account information, passwords, memories and more can be kept secure and together.

 My family don't know my funeral wishes and preferences.

Family access

You can give your next of kin, parents and in-laws access to your Digital Vault and other services so they can see all your important documents and plan your funeral if needed.

 I need to arrange a funeral but I don't know how or who to talk to.

Funeral adviser service

Life & Legacy gives you access to a dedicated funeral expert, available 24/7, who can guide you or your loved ones through planning a funeral, including finding a funeral director.

I have questions about wills and probate.

Expert wills and probate support

Access trained legal consultants who can provide peace of mind on questions big and small.

I'm suffering from grief. I really need someone to help me through.

Bereavement counselling

You can have up to 6 sessions with a specially trained counsellor.
And a 24-hour helpline for further support.

I'm feeling low and out of sorts.

Employee Assistance Program

Access a suite of tools, guides and trained counsellors who are there to listen and support your physical, financial and mental wellbeing.

I need to see a doctor urgently.

GP24 virtual GP

You and your loved ones can take advantage of unlimited virtual GP appointments, to help you get seen quickly.
