5 Your declaration

Changing your nomination

The Scheme Trustee will refer to your latest nomination when they are notified of your death. We recommend you review your nomination from time to time – especially if your circumstances change. You can let us know about any changes to your chosen beneficiaries by writing to us or filling in a new Nomination form.

Declaration

If I still have assets in my MetLife Retirement Portfolio when the Scheme Administrator is notified of my death, I understand they will, acting on the instructions of the Scheme Trustee and subject to any relevant taxes, pay a lump sum and/or income benefits.

I understand the Trustee's discretion is absolute, but I wish the Trustee to consider making payment in line with my wishes as indicated in this form.
