Section 2

Depending on the business lines selected in Section 1:

Employee Benefits

The Transferring Authorised Entity requests that MetLife transfer to the Recipient Authorised Entity the following interests in those Products placed with MetLife by the Transferring Authorised Entity or through any of the Transferring Advisers:

- Future servicing rights
- Future commission

By signing this Notice, the Recipient Authorised Entity confirms to MetLife that it has contacted the Clients and it has been appointed as the new financial adviser firm for those Clients and, as a result, it has the ongoing servicing relationship with the Clients.

Any changes to the relevant accounts will be processed within 5 working days upon receipt of all correct information.

Individual Protection

The Transferring Authorised Entity requests that MetLife transfer to the Recipient Authorised Entity the following interests in those Products placed with MetLife by the Transferring Authorised Entity or through any of the Transferring Advisers:

- Future servicing rights
- Renewal commission

By signing this Notice, the Recipient Authorised Entity confirms to MetLife that:

- i) It has contacted the Clients and it has been appointed as the new financial adviser firm for those Clients and, as a result, it has the ongoing servicing relationship with the Clients; and
- ii) it accepts full liability in respect of claw back of any unearned commission and accepts that any such liability shall be governed by the Terms of Business it has in place with MetLife and that the rate of claw back applied will be calculated based on the selling firm's commission contract.

Any changes to the relevant accounts will be processed within 5 working days upon receipt of all correct information.

Wealth Management

The Transferring Authorised Entity requests that MetLife transfer to the Recipient Authorised Entity the following interests in those Products placed with MetLife by the Transferring Authorised Entity or through any of the Transferring Advisers:

- Future servicing rights;
- Trail commission; and
- Faciliation of ongoing adviser charges (where applicable)

If MetLife has been instructed by a Client to faciliate the payment of ongoing adviser charges to the Transferring Authorised Entity, MetLife will (unless it is instructed by a Client to the contrary) facilitate ongoing adviser charges on behalf of such Client to the Recipient Authorised Entity in accordance with the relevant Product terms and conditions between MetLife and the relevant Client.

By signing this Notice, the Recipient Authorised Entity confirms to MetLife that it has contacted the Clients and it has been appointed as the new financial adviser firm for those Clients and, as a result, it has the ongoing servicing relationship with the Clients.

In the event that MetLife receives this Notice on or before the 20th of the month, changes to the relevant Wealth Management accounts will be effective from the 1st day of the following calendar month. Where MetLife receives this Notice after the 20th of the month then this Notice will be treated as received on the 1st day of the following calendar month.
